Scholarship Eligibility Criteria for Graduate Students:

Scholarships are offered to graduate students with an excellent academic profile based on the following:

- High post-bac academic results and recommendation of the school's graduate committee with a distinction of at least "Bien" in the "Licence" or equivalent for the French system or a CGPA of 3.50/4.00 for applicants with an American type-degree
- Superior rating at the scholarship and admission interview (where applicable)
- Significant Extracurricular Activities

A combination of these elements is used to evaluate scholarship applicants and determine the type of scholarship to be given. Scholarships vary between 15% of tuition (almost 4 770 MAD) to 60% tuition (almost 19 080 MAD) per semester.
